"Fresh and deeply vulnerable... has accomplished something truly marvelous."

Armed with an uncanny ability to deliver across all genres, breaking singer / songwriter Jadelyn is unrivaled, earning herself over 1 million streams on Spotify and a Top 200 placement on the Dance Charts.

Jadelyn's artist debut 'Fix You' - in collaboration with electronic producer Danny Olson - is a stunningly epic take on one of the most iconic songs of this generation, garnering public acclaim from genre legends Tiesto and Don Diablo as well as international radio play. Featuring an entirely original orchestral composition, Jadelyn's carefully crafted vocals at once retain the emotion and power of the original while also breathing new life into it.

'Hard', released January 2020 in accompaniment with Noah Neiman's production, is an empowering electronic dance ballad demonstrating Jadelyn's remarkable ability as both a songwriter and performer. Earning global recognition and placement on Spotify's highly-esteemed curated New Music Friday playlists, as well as the likes of Trap Nation and several others, 'Hard' notably surpassed 100,000 streams on Spotify alone just one week after it's release.

Jadelyn once again brings her endless talent and refreshing authenticity with 'Disasterpiece', her newest collaborative single that blurs the lines between pop and dance.

Finding solace in her songwriting and recordings, Jadelyn proudly shares a very personal, non-glammed up side of herself with followers and listeners. By elaborating on human experience through her own trials and tribulations, her goal is to unapologetically show the world who she really is and inspire others to do the same.

Born in Washington state, small town girl Jadelyn displayed a passion for music at a very young age singing country on the guitar with her dad. Shortly after moving to Los Angeles in 2018 to pursue a triple-threat career in entertainment, she was brought into a recording session with producer/dj SNBRN where she discovered a natural flair for dance music. Having since recorded with the likes of Beauz, Michael McHenry, Brandon Ray Thomas, Fossari, and Stefan Roscovan, Jadelyn's dedication to developing her artistry is unmatched.
